

Personal Channelling Additional Information:-

The angels' messages are for your guidance and whatever your problem and/or question is the angels will give advice for YOUR highest good. It's your choice whether or not to follow their guidance.

Remember the physical symptoms of most medical conditions usually have an emotional cause and this is where the angels can particularly help and advise.

They will never recommend you do anything which will ultimately hurt you or negatively affect another person.

You may not ask about another person, only about the effects of another person on you, and how to deal with that.

I am purely channelling the message the angels have for you and generally their words are so personal to you that they mean little to me. I am not able, therefore, to enter into any discussion on how to interpret their words or on any actions they may suggest you take.

If you have any further questions, either now or at a later date, then you can either try the process given in this leaflet again or, if you do not seem to be receiving a clear message, send your question to me to put before the angels, along with the usual fee.

Would you like to receive a Personal Channelled message from the Angels?

The angels are waiting,
they have confirmed their willingness to help

"We love you all, and take great delight in communicating on things both great and apparently small, but nothing is too small for us Angels, and we urge you to keep asking, for our power to help is unlimited, and you are not "being greedy" or taking another person's share by asking us. This is limited human thinking. As long as you keep a loving heart, and have the good of all the World as your aspiration, then nothing can be too small or big to ask".

Write your problem and/or question about which you would like guidance in the space provided in the Personal Channelling Request Form (using either online version or enclosed postal form). It may help to write this as if you are addressing the angels directly for guidance.

Need help with asking your question?

I asked the Angels for guidance on a way to help you formulate your question.

They gave me the process given below which is in the form of a visualisation to help you focus on the problem for which a resolution is needed:

The angels are happy to give guidance on request. If you have an issue that you feel is causing you pain and worry, and is blocking you from happiness, then we ask that you do this:

Take time to yourself to be on your own and sit quietly and imagine that you are in a safe place, a place known to you, or a place from your past experience, indoors or outdoors if possible. It may be by water.

Take yourself in your mind to that place, and imagine white light flowing down from source or God and into your mind, and through your body. Let yourself relax into the feeling of benevolence and know that you are loved by God. Know that there is an answer to every problem. There is nothing that you can do or be that would diminish the love that is for you. You deserve to be healed and happy.

Now imagine that you can see your current problem as a dark energy, and hold it up in the light and look at it, as if you could hold it in your hands.

Now go deep within your heart and ask for the source of that problem to be exposed, and made known to you.

Write down a question that explains this problem in the simplest way possible.

Sit holding the paper with your problem and question written on it, and imagine the white light flowing through your body and through your heart and out to the piece of paper. See the light dissolving the problem, and a solution happening.

Feel your worry or sorrow turn to trust and know that all can be healed and resolved.

Let go and forgive yourself.

Give thanks.

The question that you have written during this exercise is the one we wish to answer for you.

Send this with the other requested details using either the online form (enter the Gift Voucher number in the Discount Voucher box) or the enclosed postal form.

If it is possible to do so, repeat the exercise as you wait for our guidance, but know that every prayer is heard and answered by God. It is for you to receive this guidance and take steps to heal yourself and let go your fear in the knowledge that there is a solution to every problem, and that you can find the solution.

I have been told by the angels: "As love is a power that transforms and heals, when we seek a solution from our hearts, this power of love in our hearts can shine on our darkness and reveal the way forward to a healing and joyful resolution."
